七十八年六月二十二日生效

Signed on June 22, 1989
Entered into force on June 22, 1989

Guidelines for cooperation of the Swiss National Science Foundation (SNSF), Berne, and the National Science Council (NSC), Taipei.

During the talks between SNSF and the Science and Technology Delegation from NSC held in Berne in November 1986, and between Mr. Rolph Gassmann, Deputy Secretary General, SNSF, and Prof. Dr. Hsien-Chun Meng, Director of the Representative Office in Europe, NSC, on 21st July 1988, the following conclusions were reached:

1. Future cooperation between NSC and SNSF, regarded valuable, will be promoted by both sides.
2. Cooperation should be encouraged in all fields of science and technology including natural sciences, engineering, life sciences, humanities and social sciences.
3. Both parties will support cooperation which includes an exchange of scientists and information, joint seminars, joint research projects and visits of scientists to the country of the other party.
4. International travel expenses for the participants will be borne by the sending country; living allowances will be borne by the host country.

5. The sending country may recommend candidates for the exchange. Priority should be given to those scientists with counterparts in the host country.
6. Details regarding joint research projects will be discussed and decided on an individual basis.
